

Name: Bill Bailey

Position: Advisor

Key Experience:

Apec/Focus, Advisor – 2003- On-going.

27th Round application and promote of licence. Advice on integrated G&G studies

Freelance Petroleum Geologist 1990-present, with long-term consultancies including:

- Exploration Manager, Tullow Exploration Limited, developing assets in the East Midlands and North Yorkshire
- Exploration Advisor, Wintershall (UK), Southern North Sea gas exploration and development
- Principal Geoscience Advisor, Schlumberger Consulting Services, evaluating fallow fields, UKCS.
- Geoscience Advisor, 3rd Energy, on redevelopment of N Yorkshire gas fields

Exploration Geologist, BP 1977 – 1989 :

- Head of Deep Water Studies Group, BP Exploration & Production
- Regional Exploration Geologist, SE Asia and Australasia,
- Senior Geologist, China, BP Petroleum Development
- Frontiers Exploration Manager, BP Exploration, Canada
- Chief Geologist, BP Petroleum Development, Norway
- Exploration Manager, BP Petroleum Development, UK Onshore Areas,

Lecturer in Earth Science, University College of North Wales, Marine Science Laboratories, 1966 – 1976, involved in marine geoscience research.

Demonstrator in Geology, University of Liverpool 1963 -1966

Qualifications

BSc (1st class) Hons, Geology, Nottingham 1959

PhD, Birmingham 1962 'Ludlovian sedimentation in south Central Wales and the adjacent Borderland'

Fellow of the Geological Society

Chartered Geologist

Publications

Most of the industry-related research in this field remains unpublished, but see: chapters in Economic Geology and Geotectonics (D. H. Tarling, Ed.) Blackwell Scientific, 1981,

Bailey and Lloyd, 2001, Petroleum Geoscience 7, 351

Chapters by (1) Bailey & Clever, and (2) Bailey, in United Kingdom Oil & Gas Fields, Geol. Soc. (London) Memoir 20, 893 and 921.

Bailey and Smith, 2010, First Break 28, 33.